Luminaria project to lighten holidays, feed hungry people

For the second year, Hoopeston residents are asked to light up the holidays by helping the hungry.

The Grant Township Food Cupboard is selling candles and sacks for luminaries, said project director Kate Bobis.

Supplies are available at Grant Township offices, 525 S. Market, and will be available at the Hoopeston municipal building from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. the next two Saturdays.

A set of six candles and six bags is $3 and will cover approximately 60 feet, Bobis said.

Food cupboard officials hope to sell "up in the couple, three thousand," she added.

Bobis suggested people go in groups to set luminaries in their neighborhoods. "It's supposed to be fun," she said. "It's not supposed to be a big, back-breaking thing."

She suggested adults get children involved in the project. "I'm a firm believer that you need to get the

Briefly

Boil order lifted

A boil order in Hoopeston was lifted Tuesday. The order was issued Saturday after a Friday night water main break.

City officials expected the order to last through this coming weekend, but water samples taken this week showed the water is now safe to drink.

Tiny Tots

The Tiny Tots program will meet at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the children's room at the Hoopeston Public Library. The theme will be "Snowballs and Snowmen."

The program is open to children ages 1 to 4 who are accompanied by an adult.

The group's Christmas program will be held Dec. 19.

Bake sale

The Hoopeston Hospital Auxiliary will host a bake sale from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday in the nursing home daycare room.

Food for Fines

The Hoopeston Public Library is helping the Grant Township Food Cupboard by allowing library patrons to pay overdue fines with items needed by the food cupboard.

Items needed include unopened packages of paper towels, toilet tissue, Kleenex or Puffs facial tissues, paper plates and napkins.

The only food items needed at this time are saltine crackers and soups.

Each item will count as one dollar towards payment of overdue fines only. The program ends Dec. 30.

School Christmas programs

The Hoopeston Area school system will abound with seasonal activities next week, including:

SUNDAY - middle/high school band/chorus Christmas concert, 2 and 3 p.m.

TUESDAY - CARE/ECSE Christmas program, 6:30 p.m.; John Greer Christmas program, 7:30 p.m., school gym.

WEDNESDAY - Maple kindergarten Christmas program, 2 p.m.

THURSDAY - DK, 1 and 2 Christmas program, 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., Maple School; Honeywell Christmas program, 1:30 p.m.
